Action Against Professor Thomas Hubbard

Thomas K Hubbard is a professor in the UT Classics Department who has ties to the University of Texas dating back to 1985. He became a tenured Professor of Classics in 2008.

Hubbard's time at UT has been filled with academic controversy. He has been published by NAMBLA (known pedophelic organization), advocacted on behalf of scholars who attempt to defend pedophilia, and taught a class called "Mythology of Rape" that was banned by the University after one semester.

Students are currently working together to organize against Professor Hubbard and let UT know we don't want pedophile sympathizers on campus. Join us!
